Goddess Ms Construed's

Paypig Program

for

Broke Ass Bitch Losers

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT!

Welcome to your new financial submissive journey. I, Ms Construed, will be walking you through My step-by-step guide and we will successfully increase your daily funds to send to the Goddess of your dreams.

Even if that is not ME.

I know... I am a truly benevolent Queen.

Imagine for a moment that you found the most perfect Woman and you desired so badly to send Her your entire life savings. How much is that?

Does that current amount make you want to cry because of how small and pathetic it is? Do you think the Goddess you are pining to send all this money wouldn't even give you the time of day for this amount?

Now, imagine if that amount was double, triple, or even quadruple digits instead.

Which fantasy makes your cock twitch more?

I thought so.

I know that I would love to receive quadruple digit tributes much much more than single digits.

So, let's make you into a proper paypig / human ATM / walking wallet that can send delectable cash gifts to a deserving Queen.

NOTE: All amounts and money referenced in this program will be in U.S. Dollars ($USD). Convert properly.

Chapter 1: The Perfect Paypig Mindset

We are at the very bottom of your mountain.

Put on your hiking shoes & get climbing!

This series is going to progress in weekly increments. You can only move on once the first 7 days are over. I want you to focus daily on the tips, tricks, and techniques that I teach you until they become an ingrained habit that will carry over each and every day.

Each week is going to become more intense and rewarding.

But we will start out slow and sweet.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

For your first lesson, we need to get you into the right mindset to make more money to hand over to your Goddess. And to do that, I am going to recommend you read or listen to two specific books (feel free to find them for free online but as they are both written by Women you will be repaying them first).

You are Badass at Making Money

By Jen Sincero

Everything is Figureoutable

By Marie Forleo

These books are going to lay down the foundations that you need to correct your mindset. Because one of the biggest things getting in the way of you tributing the Goddess of your dreams is

YOU!

So, we are going to change that by changing you. Now although these books are self help, you are instead going to read them with Goddess-colored spectacles. When they say things like:

“We refuse to give ourselves permission to become rich”

... you are going to add:

“so that I can tribute my Goddess” on to the end of it.

Everything you read and everything you learn is for the purpose of making your Goddess’ life better, not yours. Don’t be selfish. You are here to sacrifice for Her pleasure and enjoyment. Your purpose is to make Her life better.

So here I am now going to give you your first new Mantra:

1 Love Money Because 1 Love My Goddess!

These mantras are going to be your pipeline to generate more money from the Universe to send to your Goddess.

Say them. Write them. Feel them. Own them.

YOUR FIRST TASK

I am not done with you yet. Changing your mind is only the precursor to sacrificing and serving your Goddess properly. We need to get you actually physically saving up CA$H for your Goddess.

Your first real task in this program is to prepare a new home for all that delicious money. I want you to find a box, jar, or bottle. Anything that you can put money into. That's right. In this digital age, I am bringing it back old school style. We are going to be collecting cold hard cash (and coins).

So go find something that will be your PIGGY BANK!

And to spice it up, you may have noticed a few extra printables with this program. There is a PDF with 2 pages (one with My picture and branding for My true devotees, and one without).

Print the page of your choosing and tape it to the top, front, or side of your new piggy bank. Then fill it out.

I am saving up for Goddess
Ms Construed.
I will be the perfect _____.

I am starting on _____ (date).

My goal is to save
$ _____ by _____.

	Amount Saved	TOTAL Saved		Amount Saved	TOTAL Saved
Day 1	_____	_____	Day 16	_____	_____
Day 2	_____	_____	Day 17	_____	_____
Day 3	_____	_____	Day 18	_____	_____
Day 4	_____	_____	Day 19	_____	_____
Day 5	_____	_____	Day 20	_____	_____
Day 6	_____	_____	Day 21	_____	_____
Day 7	_____	_____	Day 22	_____	_____
Day 8	_____	_____	Day 23	_____	_____
Day 9	_____	_____	Day 24	_____	_____
Day 10	_____	_____	Day 25	_____	_____
Day 11	_____	_____	Day 26	_____	_____
Day 12	_____	_____	Day 27	_____	_____

The top line “I will be the perfect _____.” is for you to fill in your chosen title:

Paypig

Human ATM

Wallet

Finslave

Whatever you want

So, now we are going to start collecting our funds. For this week, I want you to work on putting aside $0.25 a day.

That's right. Only 25 cents. A quarter a day!
That isn't even hard, right?

Some tasks for you to practice this week:

- Dig in couch cushions (even if they are not yours!) Go visit everyone you know.
- Search the pockets of all clothing; pants, jackets, shirts. (Again even if they are not yours!) Don't miss a spot.
- Keep your eyes to the ground as you are walking. See a penny, pick it up, all day long... Period. Keep doing it.

And let's not forget to sharpen that mindset by completing these tasks:

- Make a list of reasons why your Goddess deserves more money.
- Make a list of some of the beautiful things that money has given your Goddess or done for Her.
- Make a list of all the awesome things and experiences money will add to your Goddess' life.
- Make a list of how being rich will benefit your Goddess.

On Day 8, you will be sent mail for Week 2.

Watch for it!

Chapter 2: Kickin' It Up A Notch

How Does That Make you Feel?

Do you Believe you Can Do This?

Was this past week a walk in the park or a living nightmare? Were you able to save up at least a quarter every day? Did you save more than that?

Send me a message and tell me how the first week made you feel. Are you having any trouble remembering to always look in places for money? Are you embarrassed to dig around at a friend's house for change?

I want to hear ALL about your adventure.

And don't forget to write in your savings on your Piggy Bank chart!

FIXING THE MINDSET

One week is certainly not enough to build up some good habits, and especially if you were struggling with any part of this program last week, we need to ease the struggles. Financial Submission is rooted in sacrifice, but displeasure in a task will inform the Universe that you aren't worthy of more money.

So, it's NOT beneficial to your Goddess if you scare away HER money with your scaredy cat vibes.

This week we are going to continue improving your mindset and allow more money to flow through you to your Goddess.

Gratitude is the easiest and most powerful tool to make this happen. So, today you are going to start a Gratitude Log.

Some prompts to get you started are:

- I am grateful to my Goddess for _____.
- I am grateful that I can see my Goddess because _____.
- I am grateful that my Goddess gives me _____.
- I am grateful to serve my Goddess by _____.
- I am grateful for this program because I _____.

Continue to work through the books and their exercises as well as this Gratitude Log every day.

Today's new Money Mantra:

I Love Money and Money Loves my Goddess!

MOVIN' ON UP

Now that we have some helpful habits, we're going to move on up. This week you are going to work on collecting at least $1 every day.

You have graduated to actual dollar bills. Now maybe you were already saving more than this from last week... GREAT! Keep it up! If not, don't worry. I got you.

Don't forget what you learned and practiced last week! You still want to keep up on those habits every day. It's only going to further your money collecting efforts.

This week I want you to:

- Find the largest shopping plaza or mall in your area. Go for a walk around it for at least an hour or more. Keep your eyes to the ground and find any dropped coin or bill.
- BONUS: If there's a wishing fountain, just dive right in! Collect as many as you can with one fistful or if you are brave enough, just make bank by grabbing all of it.

Chapter 3: Show Me the Money

Tribute Time!!

Now comes the first glorious moment of many that you have been waiting for, I'm sure. With all your hard work these past few weeks, how much have you saved into your piggy bank?

If you were saving up the minimums every day to date, then you should have at least $8.75. Push it to over $10 with some extra scouring. You have a bill due.. Time to ask friends, family, and co-workers to pitch in.

Whatever amount you have saved up in cold hard CA$H in your piggy bank, bring it down to your local store and purchase a prepaid gift card. Make sure you look for coins along the way to round up!

Go ahead and use that gift card to TRIBUTE to your dearly beloved Goddess. Make sure you put in the note:

“First tribute from Goddess Ms Construed’s Paypig Program for Broke Ass Bitch Losers”

Make sure you send Me pictures of your travels to the store, picking out the perfect card, the receipt showing how much is on it now, along with your own thoughts on how this program has made you feel.

Was the trip exciting? Nerve wracking? Are you concerned with the response from your Goddess? Is this your first ever tribute to a Goddess?

I love to hear ALL about it.

And before we get too far, let me start you off with a new money mantra:

I Love Money Because Money Is Always Here For my Goddess!

BEING A MONEY CONDUIT

We're going to continue to work on your proper paypig mindset to ensure your Goddess is receiving all that She deserves.

I have a simple and fun game for us to play. You will need the following:

- Ketchup or other chosen condiment
- A blank piece of paper
- Writing utensil (pen, pencil, marker)
- Picture taking device (cellphone, webcam... timing ability would help)

On the piece of paper, write out:

“I am your french fry!”

Setup your phone or webcam to take a picture first, because this is about to get messy.

Cover your fingers in the ketchup or other condiment. Hold your sign up high and take the picture. (BONUS points if you take a video yelling “I am your french fry!”)

Go ahead and send this picture (or video) to me at msconstrued666@gmail.com. And share it with your dream Goddess so She can have a good laugh as well.

This is your reminder that you are simply a conduit of money for your Goddess, just like a french fry is a conduit of carrying ketchup for us to enjoy.

Your bank accounts, wallets, credit cards, etc are simply holding places for your Goddess’ money. You keep these placeholders open and warm and cozy for money to move through you to your Goddess. Just a conduit... drawing the money in and pushing it out to your Goddess for Her happiness.

STAY THE COURSE

Let's go back over the daily habits you should be cultivating.

- Digging in couch and chair cushions at your home, other's homes, businesses... anywhere you see a cushion, go diving!
- Search the pockets of all clothing; pants, jackets, shirts. (Again even if they are not yours!) Don't miss a spot.
- Keep your eyes to the ground as you are walking. See a penny, pick it up, all day long... Period. Keep doing it.
- Write in your Gratitude Journal daily. Reflect on what makes you the most grateful about handing over hard earned (found) money to your Goddess.
- Weekly, visit the largest shopping plaza or mall in your area. Go for a walk around it for at least an hour or more. Keep your eyes to the ground and find any dropped coin or bill. Don't forget to dive into that wishing fountain!

It's time to move you into the big leagues! Week 1, you were saving 25 cents or more per day. Week 2, you were saving $1 or more every day. Can you guess how much you are going to have to save up per day this week?

You read that right... TEN WHOLE DOLLARS A DAY!

Like I said, you are officially pushing into the BIG leagues. This is where we learn the most important aspects of the life of a paypig; sacrifice, scrape, suffer, and save.

And let's be honest here... how much on average have you been saving daily up to now? $5? $10? $20? More??

If not, we're going to make that happen. Mindset and scrounging around for chump change is only the foundation for daily habits that will ensure lifelong success as a paypig. This week we'll do even more than that!

This week's challenges are going to encourage you to look more inward for the ability to give more CA$H to your dream Goddess. Ultimately it is those who sacrifice their own comforts for Hers that give more.

Today, you are going to sit down and write a list of everything you spend money on. Start with yearly expenses and shorten it to monthly, weekly, and daily. Rent, utilities, insurance, gas for your vehicle, food, household supplies, etc. List it all out with the total amount paid and frequency paid (daily, monthly, etc).

Now add up the entire total.. Yes, all of it. And divide by 365.

This gives us the daily amount you spend. Is this amount more than 50% of your income?

Because that other 50% should be sent directly to your Goddess. If it's more than half your income, then we need to work on cutting back on your expenditures. These cutbacks will begin giving us MORE to send to your Goddess.

TRIM THE FAT

Let's start with the easiest and most frivolous expenses to cut down where money is leaking out.

Do you spend anything on the following?:

- Eating out (food deliveries, fast food, restaurants, etc)
- Morning coffee (or any time of the day)
- Subscription or streaming services (Netflix, Hulu, etc)
- Double phone bills (i.e. cell phone & home phone)
- Grooming services (i.e. haircuts)

If you spend on any of the above, stop or cancel them immediately. These are all luxuries that are not necessary to your Goddess' best life. In fact, these are all taking away from Her happiness.

On average, people spend $10 a day on fast food and $5 a day on coffee. If you stop both of these, that is an average of $15 a day saved that can then be sent to your Goddess instead. A streaming subscription is about $15 a month, equivalent to 50 cents a day saved. Phone bills are definitely not cheap and if you are paying for more than one phone, then you are simply pissing your Goddess' money. Cancel one immediately! That's at least a $50-100 average monthly savings, or $1.65-$3.28 a day.

With all of these frivolous expenses purged from your budget, you could easily be sending your Goddess an additional $20 or more a day!

Adding in all of your newfound habits to search for money everywhere... At this point, $20 a day is a walk in the park. Save it up throughout the week to send it all at once, and think about how happy She is going to be when you send Her a very large and robust...

$140+ tribute!

That's no longer your cheap little chump change of $10, is it?

Welcome to the BIG LEAGUES, loser.

Chapter 4: Scared Yet?

Was last week's lesson intimidating? Did the idea of saving up $10 or $20 a day seem daunting? Were you thinking that the idea of sending $140+ tribute to your Goddess was out of your reach?

Newsflash loser:

You are ruining the happiness of your Goddess!

Stop it!

Negative and limiting thoughts are beliefs that take away from the Universe flowing money through you to your Goddess. And we are going to end them today.

Today, you must sit down and go through every bad thought you had from last week and even previous to you starting this program. We are going to rewrite these thoughts to better serve your Goddess.

Some examples:

Negative	Replace With...
I want...	I have...
I wish...	I am...
I need...	I'm grateful for...
I can't...	I can...
I'm trying..	I choose...
I hope...	I enjoy...
I should...	I will...
I don't know...	I know...

Let's try this out:

Bad thought:

I want to tribute my Goddess more money but...

STOP!

Rewritten thought:

I have two hands, two feet, and two eyes and I am going to go out and get more money for my Goddess to tribute Her more today.

Stop limiting your Goddess' money!

HEARTH AND HOME

We're now going to warm up the space around your little piggy bank to invite more money to it for your Goddess.

Create an altar around your piggy bank to draw in more cash. Place it in a safe and secure, but still accessible place. Surround it with magnets, pictures of money and your Goddess, anything that makes you feel "warm" from inside.

WARNING: Do not put candles that you light on fire near your piggy bank. We do not want any accidents to happen with Goddess' money. Make this space feel like FIRE, but not make it so. ***

And going forward, you will use this altar for a daily ritual. You must spend at least 5 minutes every day sitting in silence in front of this altar connecting with the energy of your Goddess' money.
